Dear Noah,

Congratulations! On behalf of the Board of Admissions, I'm excited to welcome you to the Boston University Class of 2025. You have been admitted to the College of Arts & Sciences and chosen among a select group of peers to receive a prestigious $25,000 Presidential Scholarship. This honor recognizes your designation as a Scholar Finalist in the College Board National Recognition Program.

While you were considered for other Boston University scholarships, your selection for this award is a recognition of your many achievements.

I am also pleased to offer you a seat in the Kilachand Honors College (KHC). I encourage you to read your welcome letter from KHC Director Dr. Carrie Preston on your Decision page, which further details the benefits of this esteemed group.

Boston University is one of the finest teaching and research institutions in the world, and home to extraordinary scholars, from more than 100 countries, who share the desire to lead in a global society. Here you will find an inclusive community of talented, ambitious students; unsurpassed academic opportunities in a wide variety of disciplines; and countless research and internship positions—all right in the city of Boston.

Your admission to the College of Arts & Sciences speaks volumes about your talents and potential to succeed at Boston University. This distinction is especially noteworthy given the numerous challenges you likely experienced this year. I am confident that you will deeply enrich BU's community and that you will thrive at the University.

The best way to discover more about BU is to attend our multiple virtual events for admitted students. You will have the opportunity to be welcomed into the BU community, learn about the College of Arts & Sciences, and virtually explore the residential campus we hope you'll call home. You can register for a College of Arts & Sciences virtual event and other programs that showcase all BU has to offer on the Events page.

Learn more about the College of Arts & Sciences on the My Academics page and visit Next Steps for additional important information. We also encourage you to connect with your classmates on social media by using #BU2025 and by joining the Class of 2025 Facebook group.

To accept your place in the class, your nonrefundable enrollment deposit of $650 must be submitted to Boston University Admissions by May 1, 2021. Please note that our offer of admission is made with the understanding that you successfully complete your current academic work. You are required to submit a copy of your final transcript—including proof of graduation from your high school, final grades, and final external examination results, such as an IB diploma—in order to verify that your current level of performance has been maintained. Detailed information about your financial award(s), including requirements, renewal criteria, and contact information for any questions you may have can be found on your Financial Aid Award Notification.

Once again, congratulations. I look forward to welcoming you to campus soon.

Sincerely,
